Thank you for subscribing to the City of Auburn's Veterans Updates quarterly newsletter. Auburn celebrates our service members and their families and will continue to be a supporter of the military community. The quarterly newsletters will feature valuable, Veteran- focused organizations, services and programs throughout the region as well as current volunteer opportunities.

Upcoming Events

The winter quarter's edition will feature financial literacy programs for Veterans including our workshop event taking place on March 16th at 6:00 pm at the Auburn Senior Center. The instructor at the workshop will be Charles Woods. He's a CFPB financial coach at the WorkSource Affiliate North Seattle.

In addition, January is the start of tax season. You can get your taxes done for free through United Way of King County. Click here to find the nearest location!

If you are unable to attend the event, but still want to improve your finances this year, there are many online resources available.

1. <http://financesonline.org/> has information about budgeting, credit cards, investing, and homeownership.
2. Consumer Credit has information about post-deployment budgeting.
3. Solid Ground offers a financial boot camp.
4. The VA has programs and resources as well, including a debt calculator, mortgage calculator, student loan planning, and many more important financial topics.
