

POTENTIALLY DANGEROUS DOG

Auburn City Code Chapter 6.35 defines a potentially dangerous dog as any dog that when unprovoked:

1. Inflicts bites on a human or a domestic animal either on public or private property;
2. Chases or approaches a person upon the streets, sidewalks, or any public grounds in a menacing fashion or apparent attitude of attack, or any dog with a known propensity, tendency, or disposition to attack unprovoked, or to cause injury or otherwise to threaten the safety of humans or domestic animals;
3. Is known or should reasonably have been known by its owner to have aggressively bitten, attacked, or endangered the safety of humans or domestic animals.
4. A potentially dangerous dog is also defined as any dog that is known by the owner or should reasonably be known by the owner to be one of the following breeds or partially of such breed or to have an appearance and physical characteristics substantially similar to the following breeds:

Akita	Dogue de Bordeaux
American Pit Bull Terrier	Kuvasz
American Staffordshire Terrier	Pit Bull Terrier
Bull Terrier	Presa Canario
Cane Corso	Staffordshire Bull Terrier
Dogo Argentino	Tosa Inu

The owner of a potentially dangerous dog is required to register a potentially dangerous dog with the City Clerk's Office. A registration form is available at the City Clerk's Office located at City Hall, 25 West Main Street in Auburn or on the City's web site at www.auburnwa.gov. There is no fee for the registration. In addition to a registration, other requirements for potentially dangerous dogs include:

1. Photo of the dog must accompany the potentially dangerous dog registration form.
2. King County Pet License (available at the Auburn City Clerk's Office).
3. All dogs must be walked on leash in the city. No one under the age of 16 years may walk a leashed potentially dangerous dog outside its proper enclosure.

Failure to comply with the provisions of Auburn City Code Chapter 6.35 shall constitute a violation punishable as a misdemeanor in accordance with ACC 9.02.030.
