About the Auburn Community Players

Auburn Community Players is an emerging theater group in the Puget Sound Area. This dedicated group of individuals work together to bring family friendly musical theater productions to the local community.

Welcome to the Auburn Community Player's production of Rold Dahl's Willy Wonka. This is the Kick off to our 4th Season and is our 5th production to this date.

As a young emerging theater group we are very proud to continue to bring great musicals to the Auburn community. We are very excited you are here with us and we hope you continue to come back for each show we do. The Auburn Community Players are produced and presented by the City of Auburn. We also continue to partner with Auburn area business's to make this a true community theater experience.

The actors come from the Auburn area residents and surrounding area as well and there are all levels of experience range from highly seasoned performers to people that are new to the stage. Here at the Auburn Community Players we truly belief there is a place for everyone. So, come and join us in one of our up coming productions.

We are always looking for behind the scenes help with our productions. Also, if you are interested in being involved as an actor in a show please contact Jim Kleinbeck at jkleinbeck@auburnwa.gov.

Cast Bios

Terry Thibodeaux (Willy Wonka)

This is Terry's second show with the ACP. He last played The Baker in the ACP production of Into the Woods. When he is not on stage, he is busy teaching 3rd grade at Lake Youngs Elementary in Kent. Terry would like to thank everyone for coming out and supporting the arts.

Travis Anderson (Candy Man)

This is Travis's second show with the ACP. He was also in Footloose, playing the role of Jeter. Travis would like to thank his family, friends, and colleagues for always supporting him.

Spencer Rock (Trout)

This is Spencer's second show with the ACP. You may have recognized him as Cowboy Bob in Footloose last spring. He has had an absolute blast bringing Phineous Trout to life and hopes that everyone enjoys the show.

Matthew Graham (Charlie Bucket)

Matthew "Buggy" Graham is a sixth grader at Grasslake Elementary where he is a member of the drama club, Gator Singers, and school band. He is the lead singer in a peer age rock band named "The Heat" under the instruction of Dace's Rock N More music academy. Matthew has performed at the Hard Rock Cafe' in Seattle and was the comedic chef, Phillipe, in Grasslakes 2013 production of the Little Mermaid. He is honored and grateful to the ACP staff to be given the opportunity to perform as Charlie Bucket in his very first public theater appearance.

Carrie Sleeper-Bowers (Mrs. Bucket)

Carrie is delighted to return to ACP where she played Vi Moore in Footloose last spring. Years ago when the Auburn AveTheater was a dinner theater, she played Marian in The Music Man and Maria in The Sound of Music. Other favorite roles include: Sandy in Grease at Village Theater and supporting roles in My Fair Lady and Anything Goes at Second Story Repertory. Love to Dale, Rachel & Shane and Supportive Friends in Maple Valley. P.S. she loves cabbage soup.

Bret Espey (Mr. Bucket)

This is Bret's 5th show with the ACP, and has been in every ACP show since the first production in June 2010. Bret appeared in "Into the Woods" (narrator/mysterious man), "Bye Bye Birdie" (Albert Peterson), and "Wizard of Oz" & "Footloose" (ensemble). Bret has performed as a singer for over 20 years, and you'll also find him behind the drum kit or playing percussion wherever and whenever he gets a chance. He is excited to play Mr. Bucket (and a squirrel) with such a talented group of actors and actresses!! Bret thanks his family for putting up with his crazy hobbies, and to Dave, Stephanie and Suzanne for their tireless (and unsung) efforts to "move mountains" for each show!!

John Pinsker (Grandpa Joe)

Acting and theater are in his blood, so to speak. John's first role was Detective Sergeant Trotter in Agatha Christie's "Mousetrap" 49 years ago this month. Throughout high school and college he acted in plays and musicals and learned the art of stage craft and lighting. As a teacher John directed middle and high school productions and taught both drama and English. Over the years he has been involved in dozens of community theater productions both as an actor and a director. This is his second show with ACP. He still find every role an exciting new challenge.

Cindy Novak (Grandma Josephine)

While Cindy makes her debut with ACP, she is no newcomer to the theatre. She has been in several productions in her hometown of Tupelo, Mississippi, including Bye Bye Birdie, The Music Man, Oklahoma, and Annie Get Your Gun. She wishes to thank her husband and biggest fan, Ray, for always encouraging her to "think positive!"

Dale Bowers (Grandpa George)

last year Dale appeared in Mary Stuart at ACT and Something's Afoot at Taproot in Seattle. He is delighted to be back on one of his favorite stages having last appeared here as Van Helsing in Auburn Regional Theatre's production of Dracula. Old timers may remember him as Scrooge in Scrooge the Musical, Pappy Yokum in Lil Abner and Mayor Shin in The Music Man at The Avenue Act I Dinner Theatre. "I love this Show". "Where else can I lay in bed all night and deliver punch line after punch line".

Deborah Collins (Grandma Georgina)

Deborah has always wanted to dance and act. It's in her blood and she's thankful to God that she gets to do what she loves to do! She trained in dance and theatre in London, England, where she had her first job as a dancer in the Springs Dance Company. Since then she has worked as a dancer, actor, teacher, choreographer and director for various schools, churches and Christian organizations. She's very grateful to her husband and two amazing sons to have been given the time for this, her second production, with Auburn Community Players.

Michael Anderson (Agustus Gloop)

Michael is thrilled to be performing in his first show with the ACP! He is currently a freshman at SAMi in Tacoma. Some past productions include Honk!, Seussical the Musical, and 42nd Street. He would like to thank everyone who encouraged and helped him through this process. Enjoy the show

Candice L-Metzger (Mrs. Gloop)

This is Candice's third production with ACP. She is very excited to play "Mrs. Gloop" alongside such an amazing cast. Candice has done several productions in the Auburn area, among these her favorite role was "Glinda" in "The Wizard of Oz." She also directs children's productions! Candice has directed "Aristocats Jr." and this past school year she was the musical director for "Beauty and the Beast Jr." Candice would like to thank her friends and family for their support and her husband for the privilege and joy of acting alongside him.

Mckenna Webb (Veruca Salt)

Mckenna Webb is an 11 year-old native Washingtonian, born in Renton and raised in Auburn. Drawn to acting and singing at a young age she won her first school talent show in the first grade (Wildcat Idol), singing a duet of the song "Fabulous" from High School Musical 2. Her first acting experience was in 2006 playing a poodle in the Lakeland Hills Elementary production of 101 Dalmatians. Since that time she has had the privilege of being in five additional plays directed by Mrs. Samuelson, including Jungle Book Jr. (Baby Elephant), Seussical Jr. (Baby Kangaroo), Mulan Jr. (Matchmaker), Into the Woods Jr. (Narrator), Honk! Jr. (Drake) and Into the Woods Jr. (Witch). Additionally McKenna trained in dance at Dance Fusion (Tap and Hip Hop). She is looking forward to her first ACP role as "Veruca Salt" in Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory.

Cast Bios

Russ Metzger (Mr. Salt)

This is Russel's third production with ACP. Russel has performed in almost a hundred plays in the Puget Sound area. Some of his favorite roles have been Scarecrow in Wizard of Oz, and Injun Joe in Tom Sawyer. Russel performed at Auburn Ave Theater back in the early years of dinner theatre. He is so happy to be working with such a talented cast including his wife Candice Metzger ( Mrs Gloop.)

Lee Harold (Mike Teevee)

Lee Harrold is thrilled to take part in the ACP production of "Willie Wonka" as Mike Teevee. His favorite role so far has been Ryan Red. Lee has recently appeared in the TAM as Richard ("Joking Apart"), Ryan Red ("Final Vinyl!"), and Tony ("You Can't Take it With You") and would like to thank his family and friends for supporting his many endeavors.

Sam H-Anderson (Mrs. TeeVee)

Sam is absolutely delighted to be in this phenomenal show. Recently she was seen in Renton's Summer Teen Musical "Guys and Dolls" as Lt. Brannigan, and before that Kim MacAfee in Bye Bye Birdie, and Eddie in 13! This is her third production with ACP, and was seen in The Wizard of Oz as an ensemble member, and Footloose as Cowgirl Bobbette! She wants to thank the wonderful production team, Ryan for putting up with her crazy breakdowns over blocking and choreography, Melanie for making her "pull herself togetha!", and finally, her great-grandmother who was a role model to her. This one's for you Granny!

Leslie Clark (Violet Beauregarde)

Leslie has a passion for acting and is extremely excited to be included in her first production with the ACP! She wishes to thank David and Stephanie for giving her this opportunity. When she's not on stage, Leslie is a 7th grade honor student at Glacier Middle School in Buckley, and loves to paint, sew, bake and do acrobatics.

Jessie Glancy (Mrs. Beauregarde)

Jessie is excited to be doing her first show with ACP. She has been on stage since she was 8, appearing in her first show as Charlotte in Charlottes Web. She has a passion for childrens theatre and her favorite role was Turtle in A Year With Frog and Toad. She's also been seen in Oklahoma!, Noises Off, Steel Magnolias and Bye,Bye Birdie. Jessie would like to thank her husband Will and her kids Keira, Audrey and Liam for all their support.

Maddie L-G (Matilda)

Maddie has been with ACP for over a year, this is her fourth production with them. She loves to act and sing, and wishes to pursue it as a career. She is almost 16 and attends Auburn Mountainview High School as a sophomore.

Drew Bates (James)

Drew has recently turned 11 and he's extremely excited to be doing his 8th play at Auburn Ave. and first ACP show. You may have seen me before in the Junior versions of Annie, Little Mermaid, Aladdin, Jungle Book, Wizard of Oz, and Seussical. He was honored to play Jack in this past summer's Into the Woods - his favorite role so far. When he is not acting or singing, He likes to ride his bike, help his dad in the kitchen, or play with his dog, Lucy. He's always looking for the opportunity to see Cirque du Soleil or a musical. He is a 5th grader at Terminal Park Elementary School. When he grows up he wants to be a performer.

Alexis Harrold (Ensemble)

Alexis enjoys theater and is excited to take part in Willy Wonka. Alexis' favorite role was Mabel in the Pirates of Penzance at HTA Theatre. Other credits include Brigitta in The Sound of Music, Deborah Sue in Bye Bye Birdie with Auburn Community Players and Princess Prim in the Frog Prince with Missoula Children's Theatre. She's had a lot of fun working with the production staff and great actors.

Brendon Kinney (Ensemble)

Brandon is really proud to be a cast member of Willy Wonka. He enjoys working with his fellow cast mates and director, David Cox. He has performed in several of his high school plays, including Guys and Dolls and Zombie Prom and recently had enjoyed playing Jack in Jack and the Beanstalk for Valley Center Stage in North Bend. He also had roles with ACP before as The Tin Man in Wizard of Oz. He is really into this and this place and these people are some of the most important things in his life. He would like to also thank his parents since he would not have heard of this place without them.

Marco Garcia (Ensemble)

Marco would like to thank his mom for allowing me to be in this production, along with all of coordinators to this show. He's only really been interested in musicals and theater for a year and a half, maybe more, but it is very enjoyable. He's looking forward to being in many more productions with ACP and hopes you all enjoy this musical as much as he has enjoyed being part of this great cast, thank you all.

Julia Seligman (Ensemble)

Julia has been involved in theatre for several years now, despite her young age. She has held supporting roles in several school plays as well as being a veteran of the Auburn Theatre. Her favorite role to date has been Gertrude McFuzz in Seussical the Musical (specifically the "All for You" song). Her influences include Bernadette Peters and Kristen Chenoweth. Julia plans on pursuing the acting bug for her entire life and is planning a trip to her Mecca (Broadway) for her sweet 16. Forever with a song in her heart and a sparkle in her eye, Julia has greatly enjoyed the Wonka experience.

Production Staff

Dave Cox (Director)

This is Dave's 5th show as director with Auburn Community players. ACP's production of "The Wizard of Oz!" earned high praise from Auburn's Mayor, Pete Lewis. Mayor Lewis said, "One of the most successful productions of all time at the Auburn Ave Theater." Dave could most recently be seen on stage as Major Malone in "Zombies from the Beyond!" with Auburn MountainView Theater's Summer Alumni Theater Company. When he's not in the Auburn Avenue Theater, Dave teaches drama at Rainier Middle School. Dave would like to thank the production team of Stephanie, Suzanne, Jim, Ashley and the entire cast. Special thanks to Bret, Maddie and Brandon for giving up so much of their time to bring "Willy Wonka" together! Thanks also to Peter for his wonderful lighting and availability. Most importantly, Dave thanks his Family. His two young sons, Davey and Mikey, and his beautiful, hardworking, wonderful wife Steph. "There is no way I could do any of this without you!"

Stephanie Cox (Choreographer)

Stephanie received her training from the Evergreen City Ballet, the Hartford School of Ballet and Westlake Dance Center. After receiving a serious ankle injury, Stephanie matriculated at the University of Oregon where she received a Bachelor of Arts with a dance major and double minors in business and art administrations. In recent years Stephanie has become a well known choreographer for shows such as Urinetown (Auburn Riverside) Annie (Rainier Middle School). She has been the choreographer for three of ACP productions. Stephanie is the proud owner of Children's Dance Theater and wants to say thanks to the men in her life! I love you Dave Cox, Davey and Mikey!

Suzanne Messinger (Music Director)

Suzanne Messinger studied classical piano and performed from the age of six to 24 before being bitten by the theater bug. The bite proved severe and she immediately shifted her studies to voice and all things live theater, devouring every aspect in front of and behind the curtain. To date, Suzanne has been an actor, director, musical director, conductor, producer, accompanist, stage manager and sound engineer in over 30 shows, most recently as music director of ACP's production of Footloose. Her favorite roles have been as Maria in Sound of Music, Anna in The King & I, and The Witch in Into The Woods. Suzanne teaches piano and voice here in Auburn with the Children's Dance Studio, in Tacoma at the Seabury School and from her own Limelight Performing Arts Studio in Browns Point. She'd like to thank ACP for the opportunity to work in this production and hopes you all enjoy tonight's performance.

Jim Kleinbeck (Producer)

This is the 5th production Jim has produced for ACP. He has spent many years on this stage portraying everything from a 50's teen in Saturday Night at Big Daddy's to a bullet colored growly man as Jud Fry in Oklahoma and the Cowardly Lion in the Wizard of Oz. Jim is excited for this production and wants to thank Dave, Stephanie, Suzanne and the rest of the cast for taking on this big project. He especially wants to thank Tanner & Angie for letting him take time away from them to be a part of this process.
