

The City of Auburn and The Bravo Performing Arts Series Present...

The Best of the Pacific Northwest Tribute Bands Quarantine Contest

The City of Auburn's Bravo Performing Arts series is seeking video submissions for the first (and hopefully last) The Best of the Northwest Tribute Bands, Quarantine Contest. A variety of different Tribute bands are encouraged – Everyone has a different idea of what a tribute band/artist is, so let's see yours!

This contest is open to all Pacific Northwest Tribute Bands to help bring people together through incredible performances and displays of artistic ingenuity during such isolated times. All entries will be shared on the City of Auburn's social media platforms and the public will vote to award the Coveted People's Choice Trophy and a performance contract for an upcoming show at the Auburn Ave Theater.

THE RULES: (THE NITTY GRITTY)

1. Please fill out competition form completely and make sure that you turn in with your video submission. <https://auburn.seamlessdocs.com/f/tributecontest>
2. Entrants must submit two concert style videos (one to be used for prelims and one for finals), two digital high res photos and a brief band description
3. Please send Video clips, Digital Images and band description to the email or via Dropbox or Google Drive to jkleinbeck@auburnwa.gov between now and October 17, 2020 for the first round of judging
4. Clips must be no longer than four minutes in length.
5. No lip syncing
6. Please make sure content is acceptable to be aired on the City of Auburn's social media.

The City of Auburn and the Committee reserves the right to not air inappropriate content.
